Senate Tax Storm Threatens

NOTES FROM A CITY EDITOR'S NOTEBOOK—This is the day I write something about the annual Lincoln school play.

Now my forte isn't drama — particularly children's drama — but I can assure you that Lincoln school's annual production is something all patrons of the school shouldn't miss. It's entitled, "Dix-on-Then"—the title suggesting Indians, pioneers, and events that all red-blooded followers of the stage will love to see and hear.

Personally I've shunned anything directly connected with the stage. Unquestionably I acquired my fixation at an early age, when my mother—like all mothers—was attempting to acquire a share of public acclaim for her bright little son.

My first and only excursion into children's drama occurred in the fourth grade and truthfully it left an indelible mark on my personality.

It was shoved into a production concerning George Washington's birthday, a thoroughly imaginative opus dreamed up by a Miss Johnson, a spinster nearing the end of her career as a shepherd of children.

The events leading to and from my part in this have seared my soul. They must have because I recollect them so clearly.

I played the part of George Washington—in fact there were three George Washingtons (an extravaganza, indeed!).

We three were to reenact the cutting down of the cherry tree, a pure fantasy that included knickerbockers, white wigs, tri-colored hats—and hatchets! The hatchets, it turned out, were of pressed paper and, as I recall, were colored red, white and blue!

We three went through our rehearsals in plain clothes and it all seemed innocent enough. It wasn't until we donned our costumes for the dress rehearsal, that I realized that my doom was approaching. I hadn't reckoned that we must perform before our classmates and any American boy shouldn't be caught dead in a periwig and knickerbockers!

Came the main performance before an audience of our peers. We tripped out on the platform and my worst fears were confirmed. There in the front row were our dirty-faced classmates, wearing broad smiles of derision. I choked up, but struggled through some lines, sang a ditty concerning the cherry tree myth, and prepared for the climax.

We were to file Indian-like to the cherry tree, take a few imaginary swipes at the spindly trunk and march off, leaving the tree bent and broken, figuratively.

I must have lunged into my part too enthusiastically for as I went into a vigorous backstroke with my little hatchet, the head of the hatchet went sailing like a boomerang into the audience! The sight of a hatchet-less, bewildered George Washington cinched our production as a great performance. The house jeered, clapped and roared. A star was born. But I stumbled off the platform to oblivion.

I only mention this incident to point up the fact that Lincoln school's play Friday may turn up some equally surprising performances. Budding child stars have a way of being uninhibited and charming.

I heartily suggest you attend—and throw away the program. The choice performances usually are unlisted.

NEEDLES, Calif. (U)—Alfred Snyder, high school principal in this Mojave Desert town, and his family, returned from a visit in Pennsylvania, coming back by way of Florida.

"Any bad weather on the trip? "Yes," said Snyder, "it rained constantly in Florida, and nowhere else."

Sees Toll Roads In State in 1955

Stratton Expects Survey For 500 Miles in 90 Days

URBANA, Ill. (AP)—Gov. Stratton says toll roads will be under construction in Illinois next year.

He made the prediction Wednesday night before the 40th annual Illinois highway engineering conference. He is an ex-officio member of the Illinois State Toll Highway Commission, authorized by the 1953 legislature to plan toll roads and issue bonds for their construction.

The governor said engineers would complete in 90 days a survey to determine the feasibility and priority of 500 miles of potential toll expressway. Four months later, he said, reports on potential earnings of the roads and their engineering plans will be ready.

"The commission can then go ahead and sell toll road bonds, award construction contracts and start building turnpikes," he added. "In the meantime, an opinion of the validity of the legislation authorizing the toll road program will be handed down by the Illinois supreme court."

Regional Tickets

Tickets for Friday night's Dixon regional tournament championship game went on sale at noon today at the high school and it was reported that they were going fast. If any tickets remain after tonight's game, they will go on sale at Fuhs tomorrow morning.

Freedom of Information Committee, a group of newsmen working for the elimination of unnecessary secrecy, Walters, president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, is a former chairman of the committee.

The commission will hold occasional private sessions when they're deemed necessary by the members, Peters said, just as legislative committees hold some executive meetings.

Open hearings were requested in letters to Peters by M. J. Gagle, executive editor of the Danville Commercial News, and Basil L. Walters, executive editor of Knight Newspapers, Inc.

The editors wrote Peters that as the "people's representatives" they felt "we have a deep obligation to get the facts, to protect the people's right to know what public officials are doing with tax money."

We Are Not A Divided Party: Hall

McCarthy Says He And Ike Agree on Basic Principles

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall sought to step into the breach between President Eisenhower and Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) today by discounting the GOP's "family differences."

McCarthy himself, soon after he rejected presidential criticism in a crackling statement of his own, said in an interview, "I have no fight with Eisenhower at all. I hope the issuing of statements back and forth will drop here."

Praise Fair Play

WASHINGTON (U)—The White House reported today that President Eisenhower has received "hundreds" of telegrams praising his call for "fair play" in congressional investigations—a call widely accepted as a rebuke to Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis).

James C. Hagerty, presidential press secretary, told newsmen he had no exact count but the total was "in the hundreds" and they ran nine to one in praise of the President.

clearly aimed at him, spoke out Wednesday against "disregard of fair play." McCarthy fired back that the President and he "apparently disagree only on how we should handle those who protect Communists."

Party Not Divided

Hall, who had anticipated the President in publicly taking issue with McCarthy's investigative methods, said in a speech prepared for a New York luncheon of the National Republican club that "we are not a divided party."

"Our opposition, naturally, has made much of the party's 'family differences' during the past weeks," he said. "They would have you believe that we Republicans have split irrevocably over a problem involving personalities."

"That's nonsense, of course. On many issues there are degrees of opinion, emphasis and approach. . . . In a vital matter like combating the endless dangers of communism, both on the home front and at the council tables abroad, we are in earnest accord."

Success Is Predicted in C. of C. Drive

Campaign for New Members to Close At Dinner Tonight

Scattered reports from members of the Dixon Chamber of Commerce membership drive committee indicate the drive will be a success, Walter Knack, committee chairman announced today.

As yet, no definite figures have been compiled as to the actual progress of the drive to reach a goal of $18,000 to $20,000 in local membership support.

The campaign, which started Tuesday at a kick-off breakfast, will conclude tonight at a victory dinner in the Rainbow Inn at 6 p.m.

According to Chamber of Commerce Manager Ralph Richie, members of the drive committee will meet to report on their success.

DIES OF INJURIES

PEORIA, Ill. (U)—Mrs. Barbara Jean Brown, 28, of 1002 Springbrook Ct., Moline, one of seven persons injured in a two car collision in Peoria Friday, died Wednesday in St. Francis hospital.

Doctor Silent on Red Background

McCarthy Continues Red Hunt With Open Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) carried his search for army Communists today into a public hearing at which an army doctor refused to tell whether he is or was a Red.

The doctor, Pfc. Marvin S. Belsky, said he had been denied an officer's commission. He refused to tell McCarthy's Senate investigation subcommittee whether he believes this was because, as McCarthy expressed it, he was "a member of the Communist conspiracy."

Belsky challenged the subcommittee's right to ask him any questions. "I am a soldier under the jurisdiction only of the President of the United States as commander-in-chief," Belsky said. "This committee has no jurisdiction over me."

Rejects Argument

Rejecting that argument, McCarthy said President Eisenhower at a news conference Wednesday had stated that all Army and government witnesses should "willingly and cheerfully give testimony" so long as it did not endanger security.

Belsky is assigned to the Army's Murphy General Hospital at Waltham, Mass.

McCarthy said he thought Belsky should be cited for contempt of Congress after the 25-year-old doctor declined to say whether he honestly believed it might have tended to incriminate him to answer all the questions he had refused to answer. He had pleaded the right against self-incrimination.

Broad Question

Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) put the broad question to Belsky, saying he did not think witnesses should be allowed to invoke their constitutional protection under the Fifth Amendment merely to keep information from congressional investigators.

McCarthy said that since Belsky had refused to answer this question, he had wrongfully invoked his constitutional protection on all the previous questions.

While McCarthy promptly recommended contempt action, the subcommittee deferred a decision until later.

The hearing was recessed until Friday without calling any other witnesses.

What Accusations

McCarthy and Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) sat through the half hour closed session — Sen. Jackson (D-Wash.) came in for his last half—before the public hearing opened. Sens. Dirksen (R-Ill) and Potter (R-Mich) showed up for the public hearing.

At one point, the witness asked: "What am I accused of and who accused me?"

"I'm Not Sure"

"I'm not sure you're accused of anything," McCarthy replied. He said Belsky was there because the subcommittee had received "information that you are an active member of the Communist conspiracy" and that the investigation was part of the investigations of "communism in the Army" and in the government and the defense effort generally.

McCarthy said he was especially interested in Belsky "because you are a doctor at the hospital that serves 'project Lincoln,' the top-most secret radar project we have in this country."

Project Lincoln is the no-longer secret code name for a radar research project at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

"You are in a position to constantly contact patients who have been working on this topmost secret radar work," McCarthy told him.

Assures Belsky

McClellan interrupted to assure Belsky that "you are not accused of anything" but that the committee had called him simply "to give information."

Questioned by Roy Cohn, the subcommittee counsel, Belsky said he performs "some" medical duties at Murphy hospital and that since May, 1953, he also has interviewed patients.

Cohn asked whether Belsky had been a member of the Communist party.

The witness invoked the Fifth Amendment, pleading that to answer "might tend to incriminate me."

Illinois 35th Nationally in Unemployment

CHICAGO (U)—Illinois ranks 35th among the states in unemployment and has a jobless ratio of 5.1 per cent compared to 6 per cent nationally, said State Labor Director Roy Cummins Wednesday.

The figure is reached by matching the number of persons who filed claims for benefits after being jobless at least one week against the average number of workers in occupations covered by the unemployment compensation law.

State Unemployment Compensation Commissioner Samuel C. Bernstein, said in the week ended Feb. 13, there were 127,532 jobless in Illinois.

BUILDING DESTROYED

CHICAGO (U)—A swift-spreading extra alarm fire destroyed a two-story building at 430 N. Leavitt St. today. No one was injured.

Rock Falls Steel Worker Convicted for Holdup

PEORIA, Ill.—A federal court jury has convicted James Kaehler, 22-year-old Rock Falls steel worker, of a charge of bank robbery.

In its verdict, reached late Wednesday, the jury found Kaehler guilty of one count in an indictment charging simple robbery, but exonerated him of two counts of armed robbery.

A motion by Kaehler's counsel for a new trial will be heard Monday by Judge J. Leroy Adair. Conviction on the one count carries a maximum penalty of five years imprisonment and a $5,000 fine.

Kaehler was accused of holding up the Farmers State Bank of Sheffield, Ill., Oct. 23, 1952. "The government charged he robbed the bank, and then drove to Jonesboro, Ark., with his wife, Ann, and two companions, John Hudson and Donald McGill. Hudson and McGill later were convicted of robbery in Arkansas and sentenced to prison for five years.

McGill and Hudson were returned to Illinois to testify at Kaehler's trial. McGill testified he heard Kaehler say he planned the bank robbery. He said that after the robbery, Kaehler picked up him and Hudson and drove them to Jonesboro.

Loose Screws

Investigation, said the spokesman, revealed that screws in the assembling process at the Allison division of General Motors had come loose because they were not properly fastened.

This assembly is used in both the M47 and M48 tanks.

Orders were issued to take apart the transmission of 6,430 tanks already issued and "stake down" the screws. The disassembling and reassembling of a transmission requires about 33 man-hours of labor. Cost of the corrective work, the spokesman estimated, might be about $60,000.

He said the question of who should pay for the work — the Army or the company — is being studied.

$1 Billion Tax Slash At Stake

Sen. George May Try for Boost in Personal Exemption

WASHINGTON (AP)—Speedy and overwhelming house approval was forecast today for a bill to cut a wide range of excise or sales taxes almost one billion dollars.

But the bill, okayed by the Ways and Means committee over opposition by the Eisenhower administration, threatened to set off a storm in the Senate over another issue.

Sen. George (D-Ga) said today he might move to tack onto the excise tax measure—when it hits the Senate—his controversial proposal to increase individual income tax exemptions and thus lower taxes, particularly for low income families.

Effective April 1

The administration argued that the government cannot afford now such broad and sweeping revenue reductions as are provided in the bill to cut to 10 per cent all excise taxes now above that level, except for liquor and tobacco.

The changes would be effective April 1. They would cut taxes on movies and other admissions, telephone bills, rail, bus and air passenger fares, jewelry, cosmetics, pocketbooks, furs, luggage, telegrams, sporting goods, cameras, pens, mechanical pencils, lighters and other items.

The Reed bill would cancel about $1,100,000,000 in cuts in other excises scheduled April 1 on liquor, tobacco, automobiles, gasoline, buses and trucks, auto parts, and beer and wine.

Halleck Optimistic

House Republican Leader Halleck of Indiana said he planned to bring the excise bill to the House floor next Wednesday, adding "the vote for it will of course be overwhelming."

Eisenhower had urged canceling the April 1 excise reductions scheduled under present law, but is opposing the across-the-board cuts called for in the Reed bill.

George has moved to increase individual income tax exemptions for each taxpayer and each dependent from the present $600 to $800, which would save taxpayers almost five billion dollars a year and lose that much in revenue for the government.

The excise bill must be enacted by April 1 to meet the deadline for canceling the excise reductions now scheduled for that date.

Find Faulty Assembly in U. S. Tanks

WASHINGTON (U)—The transmissions in about 6,430 medium tanks already delivered for service are being taken apart for correction of faulty assembly discovered in some of them, the Army said today.

The Army itself has some of the machines and the National Guard has others. They were produced by General Motors. The repair work is being done in the field.

A Pentagon spokesman, answering questions, said that on Jan. 22 a report was received from Ft. Hood, Tex., base for the 1st Armored Division, that damage to transmissions had been discovered in "three or four" tanks.

Loose Screws

Investigation, said the spokesman, revealed that screws in the assembling process at the Allison division of General Motors had come loose because they were not properly fastened.

This assembly is used in both the M47 and M48 tanks.

Orders were issued to take apart the transmission of 6,430 tanks already issued and "stake down" the screws. The disassembling and reassembling of a transmission requires about 33 man-hours of labor. Cost of the corrective work, the spokesman estimated, might be about $60,000.

He said the question of who should pay for the work — the Army or the company — is being studied.

...with Eisenhower! McCarthy may overreach himself.
 He's a hard-fighter but, nevertheless, Wednesday he showed he can be needed into going further than he seemed to intend.
 Within one hour after the President had issued an 800-word statement aimed right at McCarthy, the senator issued a statement of his own, containing this sentence:
 Changes Wording
 "Apparently the President and I now agree on the necessity of getting rid of Communists."
 Since McCarthy had made a career of Communist hunting, this could only mean McCarthy thought

Insurance Firm Settles $50,000 Suit by Widow

NEW YORK (U.S.A.) — A $50,000 insurance suit by the widow of Dr. Nathaniel C. Schlossmann, of Waukegan, Wis., against the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. was settled Wednesday for $50,000.

The settlement was arrived at during trial in state supreme court. A short time earlier, testimony was introduced that a warrant for the arrest of Schlossmann on income tax charges was issued the day before he was found dead March 15, 1950, in his Waukegan office.

Gives Deposition

The testimony was given in the form of a deposition by U. S. Atty. Timothy T. Cronin of Wisconsin.

David R. Crow, attorney for the insurance company, said later the policies would have totaled $43,000.

He said the insurance company's contention of suicide was based largely on the allegation that the doctor was lying on the floor with his head on a pillow and a towel over his face.

Crow said also three sealed envelopes were found, one addressed to Schlossmann's wife and two to his attorney, Leon Brenner. Crow said the contents never were disclosed.

The widow's lawyer, Frank J. Hughes, disputing this version, said Schlossmann was a prodigious worker, sometimes working 14 to 16 hours a day, and that a friend noticed his face was "gray and drawn" the day before his death. Hughes said Schlossmann was financially successful.

The company has refused payment on the ground that he committed suicide and invalidated the policy. A coroner, without performing an autopsy, had issued a verdict of death caused by coronary thrombosis.

David R. Crow, attorney for the insurance company, read the depositions to Justice Henry Clay Greenberg and a jury in state supreme court over objections by attorneys for the widow, now Mrs. Margaret Steinberg, of Rock Island, Ill.

Cronin said his assistant, E. K.

TV Is 'Too Rushed,' Says Big Producer

HOLLYWOOD (U.S.A.) — What's the matter with TV entertainment? Producer Leland Hayward says it's too rushed.

Hayward is worth listening to. Once a top Hollywood agent, he switched jobs to become Broadway's most successful producer. He has fostered a string of hits, including "A Bell for Adano," "State of the Union," "Mister Roberts," "South Pacific," "Call Me Madam," "Point of No Return," and "Wish You Were Here."

He is also responsible for two of TV's most memorable shows. The first was the Ford anniversary show, which is still being talked about. His second effort was last Sunday's Comedy Hour version of "Anything Goes" with Ethel Merman, Frank Sinatra, Bert Lahr and Sheree North. It was one of the happiest TV outings within memory.

"I wasn't at all satisfied," said the rugged, plain-talking Hayward, who appears to be something of a perfectionist. "There were so many things that could have been improved if we had more time."

I asked him how he felt after the historic Ford show.

"I was miserable after that one," he replied, which proves he is a perfectionist.

"Everything is done in too much of a hurry in TV," he continued. "Why, we only began work on 'Anything Goes' three weeks before the show went on. Our first rehearsal was a week before the performance, and then it was only a reading of the book."

"Look how they do it in the movies. Next week Ethel starts 'There's No Business Like Show Business.' They will take eight weeks just to record the songs."

Britain Seeks Closer EDC; Tries to Calm France

Word comes from London that Great Britain has drafted a treaty under which it would be closely linked politically and militarily to the European Defense Community. This is an important step in an earnest effort to assuage French fears that Germany would dominate EDC.

These fears have long constituted the central fact in the unhappy delay over ratification of the EDC pact. Recognizing this, the British have for more than a year labored in close conjunction with French and other European diplomats to produce an arrangement that could serve as an offset.

The text of the proposed treaty has not yet been published, but there seems little question the British government is ready to commit itself. Prime Minister Churchill expressed his country's attitude toward the EDC nations: "We are with them, but not of them."

As part of the proffered plan, the British would agree to an extension of the North Atlantic Treaty organization from the present 20-year period to 50 years—the proposed life of the EDC pact.

EDC forces and British units in Germany would serve under a common commander in furtherance of the "efficient working relationship" Britain seeks. Britain would send staff officers to assist in organizing European training and logistics, and to instruct in coordination of land and air warfare.

There would be some interlocking of staff representation between the European army and the British army of the Rhine. Air force linkage would be even closer.

The British feel this is as far as they can go in tying themselves into the defense of continental Europe. But they believe it ought to be far enough to prevent the Germans from dominating the West European military scene, and should therefore be convincing assurance to the worried French.

Although Rene Pleven was intimately involved in the discussions which produced the new British treaty draft, that is no guarantee the French will accept it. But when this proposal becomes a firm public offer, the French will be on the spot with regard to EDC as they have never been before.

The British clearly are endeavoring in this matter to give the French all support short of actual EDC membership. From this distance, at least, the British commitment looks highly substantial. The French may be hard put to explain to the waiting free world why they do not find it satisfactory.

Get Rich Treating 'Red' Throats

When the new Italian premier, Mario Scelba, presented his program to the Italian parliament the other day, he was almost howled down by Communist and Rightist extremists.

The meeting finally broke up in disorder when jeering Communists stalked out. One reporter described the session as one of the most turbulent in Italy in the past year. That's saying quite a lot of Rome.

No doubt the Communists represent this howling as the authentic voice of the people. It must puzzle a good many that the voice—speaking for "humanity"—is always so strident. If this really is it, the thing to do is get yourself the throat-lozenge concession wherever it is making itself heard.

Be an Expert; Figure Answer

By OSWALD JACOBY

"Which card would you back to win the last trick in this hand?" asks Terence Reese, the great English expert. South is playing the hand at a contract of six hearts, which is ice cold. It is more difficult, however, to win all thirteen tricks; and Reese's question poses quite a problem.

When the hand was actually played, West opened the jack of spades. Dummy played low, and East signaled with the seven of spades. South won with the ace of spades, making the mental note that East had the king of spades, and that West had led from the jack-ten.

After some thought, South led six rounds of trumps, discarding the seven and queen of clubs from the dummy. He then led out three rounds of diamonds, ending in the dummy.

At this point, dummy had two spades and the ace of clubs. South held two clubs and one trump.

Each of the opponents felt compelled to save two spades. If East had saved only one spade, declartrick with the deuce of clubs from his own hand.

CARD SENSE

Q—With both sides vulnerable, the bidding has been:

North East South West
1 Diamond 1 Spade
You, South, hold: Spades K-6-3, Hearts A-5-2, Diamonds K-5-2, Clubs 8-7-4-2. What do you do?

A—Bid one no-trump. This promises about 8 to 11 points, balanced distribution, and at least one stopper in the enemy's suit.

TODAY'S QUESTION

The bidding is the same as in the question just answered.

You, South, hold: Spades K-J-6-3, Hearts A-5-2, Diamonds K-2, Clubs Q-10-4-2. What do you do?

W. Germans Ready to OK Rearmament

BONN, Germany (AP)—A French protest notwithstanding, the Bonn government planned today to push through projected constitutional changes to pave the way for eventual West German rearmament.

Authoritative sources said Chancellor Konrad Adenauer will address the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Bundestag, the upper house of Parliament, Friday in support of amendments which the Bundestag, the lower house, approved 334-144 Feb. 26.

An American spokesman said the amendments, necessary to clear the way for German membership in the projected six-nation European army, cannot become effective until the army treaty has been fully ratified by all the member nations.

West Germany then would be free to raise forces only within the limits set by the treaty—500,000 men in 12 divisions with supporting air and naval units—to team up with French, Italian, Dutch, Belgian and Luxembourg troops. Until the treaty's final ratification, the occupation status forbidding German rearmament remains in force.

The Bundestag-approved changes in the constitution would make every German man over 18 subject to compulsory military service.

As compared with 1939, the average American in 1953 ate 1,250 per cent more frozen vegetables, 900 per cent more baby foods, 738 per cent more frozen fruit and fruit juices, 218 per cent more canned fruit juices, 80 per cent more canned soup and 71 per cent more ice cream.

JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD — (NEA) — Behind the Screens: Mark down spring, 1954, as the time for Margaret O'Brien, who hit her 17th birthday last month, to blossom out as a grown-up star.

The once sad-faced moppet, now a real beauty, is being piloted in a big movie comeback by agent Mitchell Gertz, who has set three films for her to star in beginning next month.

One will be a British flicker, "Orchard Walk," to go before the camera later this year, but the first two will be at Hollywood studios.

Predicts Gertz: "I believe Margaret's on the verge of a film career as a leading lady that will eclipse her career as a child star."

The Susan Cook who will wed Charlie Chaplin Jr., shortly is a showgirl at the Sahara hotel in Las Vegas.

Peter Lawford will apply for American citizenship and become a convert to Catholicism shortly after he weds Pat Kennedy. Side angle on Pete's big romance is that Pat is a close friend of Sharman Douglas, his old flame.

The Preston Foster who's credited as the composer on Bing Crosby's new "Two-Shillalah O'Sullivan" record hit is the same Preston Foster who stars on TV's "Waterfront" series.

ANOTHER VERSION

Marjorie (Mrs. "Life of Riley") Reynolds isn't happy about the version of her feud with her ex-husband, Jack Reynolds, that holds her responsible for Jack not seeing their young daughter. She blames all the trouble on Jack and claims that he refuses to talk to or see their offspring.

Marlon Brando's pals in New York say that he isn't seeing a psychiatrist because of the $20,000 lawsuit slapped on him by Fox for walking out of "The Egyptian."

It's in fine print in Marlon's contract with the studio, they say, that he has the right to turn down the assignment if the screenplay isn't all he thinks it should be.

Hollywood lensers are boiling at Columbia's edict that no outside photographers—and that goes for the top magazine staffers—can aim cameras at Betty Grable during filming of "The Pleasure of All Mine."

Shelley Winters is mad enough to tie every strand of spaghetti in Italy into knots. She claims she was promised the lead in "Tacey Cromwell" at U-I and along comes Jeanne Crain to nab the highly dramatic role.

There's an eye-opener for Hollywood agents advising their star clients against telefilm series. Louis Hayward got a big okay from his agent, Donald Hyde, for the Lone Wolf shows. Then Hyde quit his job as an agent and joined Hayward as a production aide for the TV films.

WHAT MAKES SAMMY SLEEP
Sammy Kaye about a boring actor: "I can read him like a book but I keep falling asleep."

There's a deal on the movie burners for Maureen O'Hara, whose Irish brogue gets thicker every year, to play Mrs. Robert E. Lee of Dixieland in the film version of Harnett T. Kane's "The Lady of Arlington." ... The word's out that Robert Stack does some four-alarm-fire acting in "The High and the Mighty." To cash in, with a higher salary, his agent's nixing all films until the picture's released.

Debra Paget spends most of her time getting in and out of Egyptian bathtubs and swimming pools in Panaramic's "Princess of the Nile." Many of the sets from "The Robe" were used in the picture and, after Debra's dunkings, the Panaramic press agent is yelling: "We should change the title of this picture to 'The Bath Robe.'"

U-I press agents are having a king-sized headache trying to explain away comedy star Paul Gil-

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Police have finally found Myron Popham's stolen car, but Popham isn't very elated about it.

The Doctor Says:

Now Is Time To Be Planning Children's Summer Camps

By EDWIN P. JORDON, M. D.

Now is the time for parents who are considering sending their children to summer camps to complete their arrangements. Such camps for boys and girls are now a part of the American scene which thousands of lucky youngsters enjoy each year.

A youngster must usually have a physical examination before going to camp. The purpose is to reveal any physical defect which might interfere with full activity so that proper measures can be taken to avoid undesirable risks.

The presence of heart disease, a severe allergy or diabetes, for example, should be known before the youngster gets into trouble from any activity normally conducted in a summer camp.

All camps give the parents instructions as to what clothes should be taken, the number of blankets, and similar information which is always needed before a camping experience can be comfortable and happy.

Most camps require one or more successful smallpox vaccinations. Some ask for typhoid inoculations, although the danger from this disease has greatly decreased. Others require inoculations against tetanus or lockjaw. The regulations for camps vary and some other inoculations such as those against diphtheria may or may not be required.

The youngster going to camp should be prepared to abide by the rules. For example, if the camp is located in an area where there are dangerous snakes, high boots may have to be worn and it could be dangerous to break this regulation. In most places swimming is an important part of camp life and the rules of safety should be strictly followed. Knives, axes, and other instruments which can cause injury should be taken only as advised by the camp directors and then certain rules for their safe use must be followed.

RULES FOR PROTECTION
But camping is rarely bound by many rules. Summer camps for youngsters have only those rules which have been proved necessary for the protection of the campers. Observing them will not interfere with pleasure, but will greatly increase the safety of the fortunate boys and girls who can have this experience.

Thousands of camps to suit almost every need, desire and even pocketbook are available. Parents who do not know how to go about choosing a camp for their youngsters can obtain information by writing the American Camping Association (348 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Ill.). This fine organization can also supply information on camps for youngsters who are suffering from some physical handicap which might make one of the general camps unsuitable.

What's Right?

Men would undoubtedly be more eager to perform the little courtesies for women if women were more gracious in their thanks. Even though he is a total stranger the man who holds a door for a woman or picks up something she has dropped should get a gracious, smiling "Thank you."

Courtesy can always be repaid.

Give them credit for that attitude, anyway, instead of getting hurt feelings because they don't visit you more often.

You'll never have any serious law trouble so long as your parents-in-law are satisfied to live their lives and let you live yours. By courtesy.

Perhaps they feel they are doing their part by refusing to "move in" on you and your husband simply because you live in the same town.

Be thankful that yours, even though retired, are leading full lives of their own and aren't dependent on you and your husband for all their entertainment.

Be thankful they aren't trying to live their lives through yours, or trying to tell you how to live your own.

So long as you always make them feel welcome in your home — and you say you invite them often — then you are doing your part.

NEW YORK—I have just had some repartee with Herbert Bayard Swope which measures the sincerity of one of those who yowl against "McCarthyism." Herbert was editor of the old New York World. He sets forth in his biographical lumber in Who's Who that the World in his regime, got three Pulitzer awards. A more delicate soul might have added that the Pulitzers owned the paper.

Herbert is all gall, divided into three parts, Herbert, Bayard and Swope. He was, therefore, in his time, a great police reporter. Thanks to the same quality, he has been a great hustler ever since. Much of his later years, he has fluttered around Bernie Baruch and the horse-tracks and in and out of the Roosevelt-Truman layouts in painless sinecures which made for the sort of publicity that can be distilled into high income and low octane celebrity.

A few years ago, I had occasion to ask Herbie whether he was B. M. B.'s press agent. He boggled audibly on the phone, for he has learned to forget that he once covered police headquarters and was a social pal of the late Arnold Rothstein. Herbert said, "Well, I certainly never was in B. M. B.'s fee, if that is what you mean." I said, "Sure, that is what I mean; you like to eat, don't you?" He then assured me, somewhat loftily, I thought, that the idea of charging a fee for advising the adviser of presidents was spiritually repugnant. Knowing that Hugh Johnson had served a regular hitch spooking for Bernie and smoothing out his ideas, I was more or less thrown by Herbert's plover's-egg attitude toward a familiar and lucrative offshoot of the trade of journalism. Another time, I asked if he were press agent for a rich dram-seller with massive delusions of eternal wisdom and a willingness to shoot the works promoting a reputation. Herbie nearly strangled.

Again, the term "press agent" horrified him. "I am," he said, with a show of patience for old time's sake, "a policy consultant." That time it was my turn to fall out of the chair. And when, a few days later I related this to Carl Byoir, who is Mr. Public Relations himself, Carl grinned with his crinkly eyes and said, "It makes the same difference."

Now here is the theme of today's message.

A few days ago, the "officers" of "Freedom House" voted "unanimously" to begin a "study" aimed at one-man congressional committees and the abuse of witnesses and others who might be denied a chance to face positive charges and confront their accusers. In other words, this self-appointed band of hope with official "headquarters" in a gritty hutch of committees, associations and all such insubstantial socio-political fungi, were fomenting a meaningless reproof of Joe McCarthy and two-cents worth of publicity for themselves. Herbert Bayard Swope was one of these high-minded heroes of the mime-handout, but the piece didn't say he personally went to "Freedom House."

I would blame him little, if not. Because once, for my sins, I had to prowling this dismal laminary to corner and confront President Eisenhower's off-Moscow Communist political agent in the union racks of Western Europe, the bashful Irving Brown. I finally cornered him only to learn that the cat had got this vicarious guttural tongue for choice. I would rather frequent the old Canal Street subway station than "Freedom House."

I now swift bethought me of a book about Heywood Broun that Swope endorsed in 1949 which lauded Broun as the sum of all the virtues and blasted me as the devil of a good man's life. The writer was one Dale Kramer. When I say the author was Red, I rely on Howard Rushmore, who had the great courage to quit the party and fight it in the open. Rushmore says he sat in Communist parleys with Kramer years ago and I say Kramer wrote for the New Masses when it was a recognized organ of the party.

As to Broun's own record, two witnesses swore that he was a party member while he still had time to confront and confound them and I say he wrote this mature opinion that the Soviet regime was the greatest effort ever made for human betterment.

I was mentioned many times in this Kramer book. All his statements about me were false and abusive and to this day I have never met my accuser nor did he ever call me on the phone to inquire whether any of his lies had any foundation in fact.

Swope now says he knew nothing about Kramer when he endorsed his book. He had "barely met him" then and hasn't met him since, and he "probably" didn't even read the book which he so feelingly endorsed. He thought he must only have scanned the pages, for he did not notice that I was even mentioned. He impales himself on another spike when he admits he didn't know the book said the World fire Broun for an abusive article in the Nation about the Irish and the Catholic church.

Broun had written, Kramer said, that the Irish were the "cry-babies of the Western world" and that "there was not a single New York editor who did not live in mortal terror" of the Catholic church.

That is the ethical standard of one great gust in the storm of moral indignation against

Oil Firms Ride High On Profits

BY SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (U)—Oil companies today are riding a high crest of profits—around 9 per cent better than in 1952.

Oilmen admit that higher prices and increased sales had a lot to do with 1953's net earnings topping the year before.

But two leaders in the industry—Robert E. Wilson, chairman, and A. W. Peake, president of Standard Oil Co. (Indiana)—have pointed out to their shareholders: "While the gains in volume in 1953 were gratifying, the increase in earnings was not satisfactory considering the large sums of money which have been investing in new facilities."

See Expansion

Like the majority of oilmen they look for domestic demand for oil products to go on expanding this year, perhaps by about the same 4 per cent with which sales in the industry as a whole topped 1952.

"Growth in sales and better prices for natural gas should help our earnings and the operation of several new pipelines and efficient refining units should reduce costs," the Indiana Standard chiefs say.

And they plan to spend 500 million dollars in the next two years in expansion and modernization.

The immediate profits outlook for the industry as a whole, however, is clouded by these problems:

Oilmen just now are waiting out the coming of the big gasoline consumption season with supplies 12 per cent greater than a year ago—putting the price pressure all on the downside for gasoline.

Expand Capacity

And most oil companies, like Indiana Standard, are continuing to expand refining capacity to produce more gasoline. Capacity will be kept in excess of civilian demand, as a reserve facility for future defense needs.

Oilmen even have to face up to the off-chance that Iranian oil might come back this year to the already saturated world market.

The first 21 of the oil companies reporting so far have combined net profits after taxes of 1 1/4 billion dollars, compared with 1 1/4 billion the year before. Estimates on what the 30 leaders in the field will finally show run as high as 2 billion dollars for 1953, compared with 2 billion in 1952.

The industry spent about 4 1/2 billion dollars in last year for expansion, and predictions now indicate about that much more will be spent this year.

Gives Reason

Why oil companies go on expanding in the face of a world glut of oil is set forth this way in the Indiana Standard officials' letter to stockholders:

"If we should relax our search for new reserves for even a year

1953 Farm Income Down; Non-Farm 'Take' Rises

Ag Figures Show Farmers Average $882 a Person

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (U)—The Agriculture department reported today that the income of the farm population last year averaged $882 for each person compared with an average of $1,898 for the non-farm population.

These figures were said to represent a decrease of $23 for the farm population and an increase of $56 for the non-farm population. The record average for the farm population—$986—was said to have been reached in 1951.

Last year's $1,898 average was reported to be the highest on record for the non-farm population. The decline in the farm income reflected lower farm product prices.

Down 8.8 Per Cent

The reduction in the farm population income last year was about 8.8 per cent on an overall basis, but only about 3 per cent on an individual average basis. The number of persons living on farms last year was smaller than the year before.

Included in the income figures for the farm population was the value of farm products used in the family home, the rental value of farm dwellings and returns from non-farm sources, such as outside investments, wages for non-farm work and the like.

The department said farm operators, as distinguished from farm laborers and other non-farm operators included in the farm population, realized a net income of $12-

$62,000,000 from farming operations last year compared with $14,153,000,000 in 1952, and with a record high of $15,644,000,000 in 1951.

Average $2,212

The average net income for the nation's farms was put at $2,212 last year compared with $2,557 in 1952 and with a record of $2,884 in 1948.

Farmers' cash receipts from marketings last year were estimated at 31 billion dollars, 4 per cent less than in 1952, which was the record high. The total volume of marketings of crops and livestock and livestock products was up 4 per cent, but farm prices averaged 8 per cent lower.

Net income figures by states had not yet been determined. But the department reported the following state breakdown on cash receipts from farm marketings for 1953 as a percentage of 1952:

Indiana, 87, Illinois 95, Michigan 97, Wisconsin 92, Missouri 94, Iowa 102.

Outfits Pinball Machines With Magnet, Fined

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (U)—Three men were fined $50 each in city court Wednesday for disorderly and offensive conduct after they were caught outwitting a pinball machine with a powerful magnet.

One defendant—Luther E. Skeels—testified he paid $130 for the magnet, described as "the strongest one I ever saw" by patrolman Clifton O. Robinson.

The magnet, the officer added, did $500 damage to the electrical apparatus in several pinball machines—and wrecked the mechanism in Robinson's watch.

GOOD PITCHING

BRADENTON, Fla. (U)—Effective pitching featured the Milwaukee Braves' second intrasquad game Wednesday as the regulars and the yannigans played to a 1-1 seven-inning tie.

The regulars were held to four hits by Gene Conley. Bob Trowbridge and Dave Jolly while the yannigans got five off Chet Nichols, Ernie Johnson and Bill Denney.

1954 Flower Show To Be Directed By Harold Cook

Harold C. Cook, Dixon, will direct the 1954 flower show of the Modern Living Exposition at Navy Pier, Chicago. The show, from April 3-11, is sponsored by the Chicago Metropolitan Home Builders' association.
Cook, popular Dixon florist, and well known floral designer, also directed the 1953 show which won many awards for Dixon garden enthusiasts.
This year's show will feature entries from garden clubs throughout the Chicago area. Dixon will be represented in the show.
According to Chairman Cook all entries for the show are now filled.

Highlighting the extravaganza will be the central garden with its pool, fountain and patio. Outdoor living will be stressed.
Helen Chamberlin, a west coast authority on table fashions, will present a series of table settings for the show.
Grover McDonald of Chicago and Dixon is director of the Modern Living Exposition.
Classifications in this year's show include:

Plans were made at this meeting for all activities for Girl Scout week, March 7 through the 13th. The next meeting of the Leader's club will be the first Thursday in April.

Window Displays

In honor of Girl Scout week there will be several window displays downtown by different branches of the organization. In Kline's department store, the Board plans to have a camp scene. Slagle's window will show the work of the 5th grade intermediates who are working on their second class badge. Those taking part in this display are: Mrs. William Thompson and Mrs. Sue Whitmer's Troop; Mrs. Jack Ottinger's Troop, Mrs. John Abbott's and Mrs. A. F. Bryant's Troop; Mrs. Arthur White's and Mrs. Ann Watson's Troop, and Mrs. George Imfeld and Mrs. Ted Metzger's Troop.

The Mariners, under the leadership of Mrs. C. C. Clausen and Mrs. Allen Boyd, will have their display in Barger's dressshop. Mrs. Melvin Murphy's and Mrs. C. H. Pieschel's Troop will have a display on "Child Care," in the Dixon Leather Shop. There will be a display of basketry by Troop 19 under the leadership of Mrs. John Harvey, Mrs. Clyde Taylor and Mrs.

The Brownie Scouts will have their display in the Dixon Paint store. Those taking part are the Troops led by: Mrs. Allen Larson and Mrs. William Wagenecht; Mrs. Kenneth Ehlbeck and Mrs. Elmer Berger; Mrs. Allen Boyd and George Slothower; Mrs. R. L. Feldkirchner and Mrs. Robert Ramsey; Mrs. Jack Bierworth and Mrs. Harold Spear; and the Troop led by Mrs. E. W. Merrick, Mrs. Merle Smith, Mrs. Richard Welch, and Mrs. William Scharvat. These displays are to be put in the windows on Saturday, March 6.

Woolens That Can Be Washed Are Practical

Washable woolens help mothers keep their school-aged children warm and neat without having to spend a lot of money for dry cleaning. A chemical treatment makes the wool so rugged that it can stand up under regular trips to the tub.

Sometimes you'll find washable woolens blended with 15 per cent nylon. This blend tends to improve wearing properties as well as help to make the wool washable.

Textiles specialist Dr. Jane Wenden, University of Illinois home economics department, points out that the wool industry is not likely to make all wool fabrics washable because the treatment tends to alter the characteristics, making the wool less soft and porous than it is normally.

Also, there is little point in using washable woolens for garments that won't be washed anyway. A suit, for instance, would not normally be washed because of its lining and inner structure. Neither would tailored garments with interfacing or trim that might shrink.

70TH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Rachel Williams, 517 Van Buren av., will celebrate her 70th birthday on Sunday, with an open house, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Dinner will be followed by dancing.

RED BRICK SCHOOL

Nab Illinois Fugitive in New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS (U-P) — The FBI announced today the arrest of Curly Humphrey, 41, as a fugitive from justice in Illinois.

Ray L. Faist, special agent in charge of the FBI office here, said Humphrey was wanted in Rock Island, Ill., for the robbery of the First and Last Chance tavern last Nov. 20.

Faist said Humphrey was arrested at a rooming house on a federal complaint charging unlawful flight from Illinois to avoid prosecution.

Faist said Humphrey is a native of Lake Charles, La., and served terms in the Louisiana State Penitentiary and in Ft. Leavenworth, Kan.

Vote Tied On Revision Of T-H Act

WASHINGTON (U-P) — A tie vote in the house labor committee today kept in force the committee's decision to take away the biggest job of the National Labor Relations Board.

The committee, it was learned, voted 14-14 on a motion by Rep. Bowler (D-Ill.) to reconsider Wednesday's action. At that time the group accepted a proposed revision of the Taft-Hartley Act which would give to federal courts the task of handing unfair labor practice charges.

Chairman McConnell (R-Pa.) could not be reached immediately after today's vote because the closed-door meeting continued.

But Rep. Hoffman (R-Mich.) reported the action and said "it is another defeat for the Eisenhower administration."

It was learned that five Democrats favored reconsideration while six of the committee's 15 Republicans opposed the effort.

McConnell was reported to have voted for a reconsideration.

It was also learned that Rep. Perkins (D-Ky.) who was absent Wednesday but reportedly opposed the proposal which was adopted by a 14-13 vote, voted against reconsideration today.

Chicago Nabs Five Puerto Rican Men

CHICAGO (U-P) — Police seized five Puerto Ricans today in a roundup of leaders of the Puerto Rican nationalist movement in Chicago.

Lt. William Walsh, in charge of the investigation, declined to say what action would be taken against the five men. He said they would be turned over to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for questioning. Walsh said they were taken into custody on information in police files and from "other persons." All were held without formal charge.

Ordered Mop-Up

Police Commissioner Timothy J. O'Connor had ordered police to bring in for investigation any Puerto Rican knowing about the nationalist movement. He said the city's Puerto Rican population is about 20,000 and scattered throughout the city.

His order came after Mrs. Alvin D. Rose had reported she had received telephone death threats from anonymous Puerto Ricans intended for Alvin E. Rose, Chicago's welfare commissioner. Mrs. Rose said the welfare commissioner had angered some Puerto Ricans in Chicago when he suggested recently that unemployed Puerto Ricans be sent back to their homeland rather than be placed on Chicago's relief rolls.

Rose, who has an unlisted telephone, refused Wednesday for a second time to accept a police bodyguard offered him. O'Connor said, however, "security precautions" would be taken so that Rose will be safe from attack.

Sees No Connection

Mrs. Rose said she did not believe there was any connection between the telephone calls and the shooting of five congressmen in Washington Monday by members of an extremist group seeking independence for Puerto Rico.

O'Connor said a special detail of guards has been requested for the next meeting of the city council next Wednesday.

It is expected they will be dismissed from the McCormick hospital, Moberly, today and will return home by the weekend.

Sheriff Bars Sale of Toy Luger Pistols

BOSTON (U-P) — Small fry who are packing plastic .12 calibre imitation Luger pistols had better ride on down to the sheriff's office and turn them in at the door.

Massachusetts Atty. Gen. George Fingold Wednesday night halted shipment of the tiny firearms into the state and warned distributors and buyers that they need permits to purchase and licenses to carry the guns.

Fingold said the weapons, which fire a tiny pellet propelled by a small charge of powder, so closely resemble the genuine Luger that they could fool holdup victims into thinking they are looking down the barrel of the real thing.

Feed Truck Overturns

A 14-ton truck hauling bags of feed overturned Wednesday a mile north of Dixon on State Rt. 26.

The driver, Kenneth Trickle, 43, Monroe, Wis., an employee of the Trickle Transfer Co., said the truck skidded on the snow-covered highway.

The cargo was transferred to another vehicle, according to State Police Officer Robert Fischer.

Republican

Republicans are going to display "team spirit," there wasn't too much evidence of unity in party reaction to the exchange of statements Wednesday by Eisenhower and McCarthy.

The Senate Republican policy committee gave no evidence, after a closed meeting Wednesday, of any material progress toward agreement on a code of ethics for conducting hearings.

McCarthy, one of those present, made it clear he intends to proceed as he has in the past despite anything Eisenhower or the President's friends might say about his methods.

"I'd hate to think the day would come when a president is expected to agree with every senator, and every senator to agree with the President on everything," McCarthy said.

"There is no reason on earth why any Republican and I should be arguing on this Communist issue. I think Eisenhower feels as strongly about fulfilling his campaign promises to get the Communists out of government as I do."

Method Unsatisfactory

Sen. Ferguson of Michigan, head of the GOP policy group, told reporters he thought the President's statement "indicated he was not entirely satisfied with the methods" used by McCarthy.

Ferguson said he wouldn't have handled in the same way McCarthy did the questioning of Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker, who said he carried out orders to give an honorable discharge to Maj. Irving Peress. Peress had refused to answer questions about possible Communist connections. McCarthy conducting an investigations subcommittee hearing, told Zwicker among other things that he should be removed from command.

Eisenhower Wednesday backed up Army Secretary Stevens, who had accused McCarthy of abusing Zwicker. The President said in an 800-word statement read to a White House news conference that no subordinate of the executive branch was going to be called upon to "submit to any kind of personal humiliation when testifying before congressional committees or elsewhere."

The President didn't name McCarthy but the senator didn't mince words in answering back.

"When the shouting and the tumult dies," he said, "the American people and the President will realize that this unprecedented mud-slinging against the committee by left-wing elements of the press and radio was caused because another Fifth Amendment Communist in government was finally dug out of the dark recesses and exposed to public view."

A car driven by Kenneth Spielman, 1014 Second st., Dixon, was damaged in the amount of $200 Wednesday night when it ran into a truck driven by Don Carlton Kibler, 27, Flint, Mich.

According to state police, the mishap occurred on U. S. Rt. 30, six miles east of Rt. 88, near Sterling.

Spielman told authorities he was lighting a cigarette when his car swerved into the opposite lane of traffic and hit the left rear of the truck, which was damaged in the amount of $20.

No one was injured. State Police Officer Ray Cramer investigated.

Use Public Funds For Care of Shot-Representatives

WASHINGTON (U-P) — Hospital and other medical expenses of five house members shot by a group of Puerto Rican fanatics will be paid from public funds, a house leader said today.

"Since these men were shot while attending to their official duties on the house floor," Republican Leader Halleck of Indiana told a reporter, "it seems only right that we take care of the expenses incurred."

Halleck said he would draft whatever legislation is necessary to pay the expenses, either from the contingent fund of the house or by direct appropriation from the Treasury.

Says Big Surpluses to Be Counted in Farm Plan

Morse Gives Summary of Plan for Senate Group

WASHINGTON (U-P) — The Eisenhower administration's new farm program would count present big surpluses of cotton, wheat and corn in fashioning future production control programs for these commodities, a spokesman told congress today.

Only in determining future price support levels under a flexible system would a part of the surpluses be excluded.

These points were made by Undersecretary of Agriculture Theodore D. Morse in an analysis of the program prepared for a Senate Agriculture Committee hearing. The session opened the administration's uphill battle to win congressional approval of its farm proposals.

Main Controversy

The main controversy centers on the provision for a variable price support formula under which price floors for basic crops would be high in times of shortages to encourage production and low in times of surplus to encourage consumption and to discourage overproduction. This plan would replace a present system of rigid high level supports, which expires at the end of this year unless Congress renews it.

In his message to Congress outlining the program, President Eisenhower said that not all of the present surpluses should be considered as a part of the supply for the purpose of determining support levels because to do so would cut price props sharply next year and not give a new program a chance to get a fair trial.

Eisenhower recommended that up to 2 1/2 billion dollars worth of surplus wheat, cotton, fats and oils, and possibly dairy products, be separated or "frozen" from commercial supplies and thereby excluded for the purpose of setting price supports under the flexible scale.

Morse said today, however, that future control programs. The level of stocks is the big factor in setting the quotas.

Exclusion of the frozen supply in determining control measures, on the other hand, could possibly free wheat from quotas next year. Price supports drop sharply when growers vote down controls.

In advance of the meeting Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.), chairman of the Agriculture committee, conceded that the program faces strong opposition.

Names Trustee For Muntz Firm

CHICAGO (U-P) — A trustee has been appointed for Muntz TV Inc., but founder Earl W. Muntz remains president although at a reduced salary.

That was the outcome of federal court proceedings Wednesday in the reorganization action brought by Michael Gesas, who says he is the lawyer for creditors whom the company owes more than $476,000.

Muntz' counsel did not oppose the petition. Muntz' pay was cut from $30,000 a year to $26,000.

Judge Win G. Knoch named C. Wiley Allen, former assistant U.S. attorney, trustee.

Gesas told Judge Knoch the Muntz firm is solvent but business is so slow it cannot meet current obligations. He said the action was intended to give the company "a chance to revitalize."

STREATOR, Ill. (U-P) — Talk about fast action on a want-ad:

As Burt paid his bill and turned to leave, there was Spot scratching on the glass door. The newspaper staff guessed Spot had come down to advertise for a lost master.

Seaman Has A Ship to Call Home

Austrian-Born Sailor Denied U.S. Re-Entry

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Trojan Seaman sailed from Baltimore today with Charles Slanina, 56-year-old Austrian-born seaman, still aboard after a last desperate attempt to re-enter the United States.

Without a country he wants to call home, Slanina finds himself trapped in a maze of immigration laws, changing political boundaries and costly mistakes dating back more than three decades.

Federal Judge W. Calvin Chestnut Wednesday rejected Slanina's request that he be allowed to leave the American ship for extensive medical treatment here. Doctors found nothing of an emergency nature wrong with him.

The sturdy built seaman admitted it was a desperate attempt to be readmitted to the land he has called home for 30 years.

It all started with "a bad mistake I made," he said Wednesday night. "I came over here in 1922 from Czechoslovakia and jumped ship I worked as a machinist in New York and took out my first naturalization papers.

"But I was scared to try to become a citizen because I thought I might get deported. Now, look where I am."

Slanina, born in a part of Austria that later became a section of Czechoslovakia, fought with the Austrian army in World War I. He deserted to join the anti-Bolshevik Czechoslovak Legion, which was caught up in the Russian Revolution. He ended up in Vladivostok.

In 1920, he returned to his homeland, was a minor government official for a time and two years later shipped to America as a merchant seaman.

Returned to Sea

He returned to the sea in 1942, when merchant seamen were needed in the World War II effort because, "it was sort of a patriotic thing," he said.

After the postwar rise of a Red government in Czechoslovakia, his passport became invalid.

Then the McCarran immigration laws became effective, and Slanina, without a valid visa or passport, was refused re-entry. He's been aboard the Trojan Seaman ever since. "14 long months," he said.

"I got no place to go," he said. Any country I go to they are going to take me to the station house.

"I don't want to go to Czechoslovakia. No place else will take me." The owners of the Trojan Seaman, already fined $1,000 for docking here with Slanina aboard, have tried to pay him off and let him go. They are subject to an additional $1,000 fine every time the ship docks in America with Slanina aboard.

Waterman Man Freed Of Murder

OTTAWA, Ill. (AP) — A LaSalle County Circuit Court jury had acquitted Melvin Carver of Waterman of a charge of murder in a rural tavern shooting Sept. 20, 1953.

Nova McCaslin, also of Waterman, the victim was released from a Sandwich hospital 10 days after the shooting but reentered the hospital 48 hours later and died the same day.

During the two-week trial which ended Wednesday, Carver contended he shot McCaslin in self-defense.

Unionists Meet Picket Line at Court Building

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Union members called for jury duty ran into a problem at the Municipal Courts building Wednesday—a picket line of striking city employees.

They explained to Circuit Judge Robert J. Kirkwood they would be subject to union fines if they crossed it. The judge, smiling, put it this way:

"You'll be fined if you do, and you'll be fined if you don't." "But I'm very certain that if you explain the situation to your unions any fines will be remitted. You are crossing the line under compulsion of a court order. I'm making that order."

The prospective jurors crossed the picket line.

Polo Causes Trouble But Bows to Mt. Morris, 81-73; Ashton Loses

Aces Drop 73-43 Decision to Cardinals; Semi-Finals Tonight

MT. MORRIS—(Special)—The favorites moved into the semi-final round last night, but the Mt. Morris Mounders had more than a little trouble with a Polo outfit that suddenly caught fire in the final period.

Mt. Morris toppled the Marcos, 81-73, and will meet Forreston, 73-43 winner over Ashton, in the second semi-final game tonight. In the first game, Rochelle and Oregon, Tuesday night winners, collide at 7 p.m.

After a good second period, Mt. Morris appeared on the way to an easy victory over Polo last night. At halftime, the Mounders led, 40-26. The third period was an evenly matched battle which still failed to give indication of things to come.

15 Point Lead
In the opening minute of the fourth quarter, Mt. Morris increased its lead to 15 points and then the fur began to fly and Clark McDaniels and Roland Unger of Polo started wearing out the nets. Late in the period, the Marcos had trimmed the lead to a mere three points as McDaniels was racking up 16 points in the period on pivot shots, drive around lay-ups and from several other points on the floor while Unger was collecting eight points. In all, Polo scored 31 points in the final period. It took a 26 point effort by Mt. Morris, several of them in the final minutes when Polo began to foul to get the ball, for the Mounders to hold out for the victory.

McDaniel High
McDaniel set the scoring pace for the night with 28 points while Danny Noonkesser and Bill Lundholm paced the Mounder attack with 20 and 19 points respectively.

Ashton proved no match for the Forreston Cardinals. The Cards, bent on revenge for an earlier upset at the hands of Ashton's Aces, exploded for a 20-9 first period lead and then rolled easily the rest of the distance for the victory.

From the second period on, Cardinal Coach Bob Brinkmeier never had his starting five in as a unit. Jay Hoffman, 6-6 Cardinal pivotman played just two minutes of the game. He had been sick over the weekend and Brinkmeier afforded him another day to rest for the Mt. Morris game tonight.

Third Period Beat
Ashton's best period was the third when the Aces scored 15 points to 19 for Forreston.

Larry Butler set the pace for the Aces with 15 points, scoring from the pivot and outside. As a whole, however, the Aces just couldn't hit all night.

Dave Blanchard set the pace for Forreston with 21 points. He and Dave DeGraff were the only two regulars to see much service for the Cardinals.

LANDY FAILS AGAIN
MELBOURNE (AP)—John Landy, Australia's premier miler, failed again today in an attempt to run the first four-minute mile. He was timed in 4:05.9 at special twilight meeting at Olympic Park.

Mims Wins Split Decision

DETROIT (AP)—Holly Mims won a split decision by outsmarting Moses Ward in their nationally televised 10-round bout at Olympic Stadium Wednesday night.

Mims, at 153, was outweighed seven pounds.

Only 1,211 spectators braved a snowstorm to attend the show.

In the fourth round Ward forced Mims into the ropes and flailed away with both hands. Mims blocked much of the barrage, then opened one of his own that made Ward backtrack. The bout followed the same general pattern to its finish.

Referee Johnny Weber saw the fight 93-89 for Mims. Judge Malcolm House scored it 89-88 for Mims and judge Jack Asprey called it 94-88 for Ward.

FAVOR MIDDLECOFF

HOUSTON (AP)—Cary Middlecoff began defense today of his $30,000 Houston Open golf title. The Memphis dentist was a favorite despite a 10-day illness and having been out of tournament competition since he lost the Phoenix Open playoff Feb. 8 to Ed Furgol.

Jenner Scoffs At Plan for Revised Rules

WASHINGTON (U)—Sen. Jenner (R-Ind) said today he regards a Republican move to tighten up the rules of senate investigating committees as "much ado about nothing."

The senate Republican policy committee last week ordered an investigation of the rules for conducting investigations.

The order was widely interpreted as aimed at Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) and his senate investigations subcommittee, and at Sen. Langer (R-ND) for making public unvalued accusations the judiciary committee had received against Chief Justice Earl Warren.

President Eisenhower voiced confidence Wednesday that congress "will respond to America's convictions in . . . exercising proper vigilance without being unfair."

Ten of the committee chairmen, including McCarthy, got together Wednesday with Sen. Ferguson of Michigan, the policy committee chairman, for some exploratory talks. Most of them, McCarthy included, refused comment after the meeting adjourned, but Jenner told reporters:

"It was much ado about nothing."

The general consensus was that you can't do much about it (politicizing the committees' rules)."

Jenner attended as chairman of the senate rules committee, which would handle any legislation to impose uniform rules on committees which now make their own. He also heads the Red-hunting internal security subcommittee.

Eisenhower, in a formal statement at his news conference Wednesday, said he had been assured "that effective steps are being taken by the Republican leadership to set up codes of fair procedures."

But Ferguson said he does not himself favor any effort to impose uniform rules on all committees, and added that "there is no desire by the policy committee, for any dictation to chairmen or committees."

Sale of Coal Scoop Began Career of F. W. Woolworth

By ED CREAGH
WASHINGTON (U)—"Dusk was gathering after a gray and chilly afternoon on Feb. 22, 1879. On a side street in Utica, N. Y., a freshly painted sign over a small shopfront proclaimed it to be the 'Great 5c Store.'

"Behind the store's paper-covered windows, F. W. Woolworth, proprietor, busied himself with last-minute preparations before opening for business."

"A knock came at the door. Woolworth answered it. A lady, now unfortunately unidentified, held a copy of an advertising circular which the merchant had distributed that morning."

Points To Item
"She pointed to the item 'fire shovels' at 5c each. Woolworth invited her in and wrapped up the shovel. The customer paid him 5c in the fractional paper currency of the day, and he promptly put it into the till."

As it turned out, Frank Winfield Woolworth, a rags-to-riches self-made man if ever there was one, put quite a few pieces of folding money into the till before he was through.

And the F. W. Woolworth Co is cheerily relating the story in an official history of itself and its founder to mark the 75th anniversary of the five-and-dime institution.

One thing bothers Woolworth's: Who was the first customer? Why did she point to the item she wanted instead of asking for it? You have the feeling Woolworth's would like to do something for the old girl—maybe give her a scoop of coal for her 'fire shovel,' or something even handsomer—if she were around today.

Began Fortune
Chances are, though, she passed away without knowing she had touched off a business venture which was destined to turn American buying and selling upside down and to produce, among countless other things, the Woolworth Building and Woolworth heiress Barbara Hutton.

Old F. W. himself had his doubts at times that he'd amount to much. The Utica store failed. Poor location. So he borrowed more money, transferred operation to Lancaster, Pa., and on the whole did pretty well for himself in years to come:

Today there are 1,800 Woolworth stores in the country alone, 170 more in Canada, 800-some in the British Isles, 8 in Cuba and—bet you didn't know this—50 in West Germany.

Sizing Up Drivers

GREENSBORO, N.C. (U)—Deputy Sheriff Thurman Jones boasts that he can spot a liquor car every time by its overloaded springs, oversize tires and powerful engine. But he admits he isn't so good at sizing up the drivers.

He ordered one car to stop and the driver asked:

"What do you want me for?"

"This looks like a liquor car," Thurman replied.

"It is," the driver admitted. He pulled out his federal agent's badge. "We picked it up and I'm taking it in."

Benjamin Franklin suggested that America make the wild turkey its national emblem, objecting to the bald eagle because, he said, it was lazy, a thief, a coward and a bully.

Worshippers Can Dial Juke Box For Hymn, Sermon

CHICAGO (U)—A transformed juke box was put into operation at opening of Lenten services at the Austin Westminster Presbyterian church Wednesday night.

Hidden in a basement corner, it sent forth its spiritual message through a special loud-speaker in the chapel upstairs. From the control box in the chapel, members may dial their choice of 24 favorites, including a meditative sermolette cut on record by the pastor, Dr. Clarence E. Showalter.

During Lent, anyone who wishes may enter the chapel for prayer, scripture and devotional music. There is a special free dial selector.

Dr. Showalter said his wife Elizabeth had qualms about putting the jukebox in the church.

"During 30 years in the ministry," he said, "I've learned to see what the need is and do it, even if it seems a little out of the ordinary."

REPEAL GAG LAW

SYDNEY, Australia (U)—The New South Wales Cabinet agreed Tuesday night to repeal the state's "press gag" law designed to force newspapers to reveal their sources of information about alleged government shenanigans.

Although U. S. and British governments have not adopted the metric system—meter, gram, liter—for measurements, U.S. and British scientists usually use it in their measurements.

Amboy Council Approves Boost in City Water Rates

AMBOY — When the Amboy City Council met in the council chambers of the city hall Tuesday evening, the water committee had its report completed, and action was taken to raise the water rates by ordinance. This proposal has been under discussion for the past several months, and it was found necessary that the rates be raised in order to meet current expenses in operating the water plant.

The rate for the first 4,000 gallons or fraction thereof (the minimum) has been raised from $3.25 to $5.

The next 6,000 gallons is raised from 60 cents per thousand to 90 cents per thousand.

The next 10,000 gallons is raised from 40 cents to 60 cents per thousand.

The next 10,000 is raised from 30 cents to 50 cents per thousand.

The rate for more than 30,000 gallons will be 45 cents per thousand. The old rate was 25 cents.

The new rates will apply on readings taken April 1 and later. In other action at Monday night's session, it was decided that the ordinance pertaining to parking meters would be amended to have-

Discusses Needs of Schools

OREGON — R. L. Kiest spoke on the present school needs in Oregon at a meeting sponsored by Farmers Advisory Council Monday night.

Kiest, who is principal of the high school, suggested that Oregon parents might like to have more vocational courses in school.

From 25 per cent to 40 per cent of Oregon high school graduates go to college and at present time Oregon's curriculum is primarily a preparatory college course.

If the high school would have commercial, farm shop, printing, home economics (4 years) and metal work, it would require more room, equipment and teachers.

Other problems were discussed such as increasing enrollments, school taxes, and unit system.

Ancient Sparta discouraged business transactions by issuing heavy, clumsy, iron coins.

The group will participate in some of the sports which are covered throughout the year in physical education classes. Activities to be used in the program are tennis, pingpong, badminton, volleyball, aerial darts, basketball, prison ball, tumbling, pyramid building, square dance and waltz. Approximately 200 students will participate in the program.

This new process makes Durkee's Flavor-Blended Margarine equal to any spread at any price.

Reds Have Troubles

TOKYO (U) — Red China of late has given rather strong inklings that all is not well with the massive effort to change over millions of peasant farmers into collectivized communist groups. Recent Peiping broadcasts have said in so many words that many of these farmers just naturally prefer to work and sell on their own for private profit.

The broadcasts also speak of: Poor leadership; antiquated farm methods; inability to get over the communist idea because the masses are uneducated; hostility of "middle peasants" who have experienced the role of "private owners"; peasant dislike of force; the necessity of making "low interest loans" and offering other government inducements; a tendency toward corruption in distributing the earnings under a collectivized system.

Pan-Browned Ocean Perch Is a Specialty in Kansas

PAN-BROWNED OCEAN PERCH filets make a favorite dish for westerners.

By GAYNOR MADDOX

Ocean perch is caught in Atlantic waters and filleted, packaged and frozen in Gloucester, Mass. But midwesterners consume more of it than people in other regions. So we went to Florence, Kan., near the geographical center of the United States—about as far from an ocean port as we could get—to pick up good perch recipes.

Mrs. Ralph Smith is one of the best local cooks in Florence. Her family sings her praises. So do the neighbors. Maybe you will, too, when you try her two favorite recipes.

Pan-Browned Ocean Perch Filets (Makes 3 servings)

One package frozen ocean perch filets, ¼ cup flour, ½ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon paprika, ¼ cup butter or margarine.

Let filets thaw on refrigerator shelf. Separate filets. Mix together flour, salt, pepper and paprika. Turn out mixture onto a piece of waxed paper. Dip each fillet into the flour mixture to coat both sides. Melt butter or margarine in a frying pan. Add filets and cook about 5 to 8 minutes or until golden brown and fish flakes easily when tested with a fork.

Creamed Perch With Cheese-Olive Sauce (Makes 2 servings)

Two tablespoons butter or margarine, 1½ tablespoons flour, dash pepper, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 cup milk, ½ cup grated American cheese, 1 cup flaked ocean perch, 6 stuffed olives, sliced.

Melt butter or margarine. Remove from heat and blend in flour and seasonings. Place on low heat and add milk, stirring constantly. Do not scorch. Add cheese. Cook until smooth and thickened. Add sliced olives and fish. Serve on crisp toast or in patty shells.

Buffalo Causes Damage to Car

LAWTON, Okla. (U) — E. C. Williams, Lawton banker and retired army colonel, was driving through the wildlife refuge near here, when a frisky yearling buffalo became angry at the car and made a dash for it. The hood and grille were smashed.

Williams quipped: "In the Philippines, I once had to stop the car to let a crocodile cross, but I'm probably the only man in the nation who is going to collect car insurance after being hit by a buffalo."

Wealth produced on urban and nonfarm lands (about 2 per cent of U. S. land) accounts for 88 per cent of U. S. taxes.

Consumers Still Buying, But When Price Is Right

Customers Wait, Haggle For Discounts, Bargains

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (U.P.) People are still buying—when they think the price is right.

There are few signs of a concerted "buyers' strike"—even on coffee. But there are increasing signs that when consumers think prices are too high they are either waiting, haggling for discounts, or seeking out "bootleg" cars and other goods.

Some businessmen are beginning to wonder if a stitch in time isn't in order—a fresh look now at pricing practices rather than risking the necessity of cutting later.

Costs Up, Too

Many manufacturers can make out a good case for the prices on their goods, citing higher production costs and operating expenses. Many retailers hesitate to lower their traditional mark-ups—their costs are up, too.

But if March doesn't bring the business pick-up that they and Washington hope for, other ways of stimulating consumer buying may be in order. And just cutting taxes may not be all that's needed.

Signs of consumer restlessness are growing. The big auto makers complain that "bootleggers" are selling new cars at less than the prices set by the auto dealers.

There are also complaints that while new car sales rose in February over January, they were still 8 per cent lower than a year ago. But, expecting good business in a few weeks, both Chrysler and Hudson are calling back laid-off workers this week.

TV PICKUP

Television set makers report a marked pickup in their sales—after there had been considerable price shaving and offering of new models in lower price ranges.

Merchants are still talking about the good business the January clearance sales brought out.

Food stores report that consumer buying is still high. But housewives will switch quickly from one kind of meat to another when the price gets out of line with their budget.

Coffee sales slid when prices soared. And the Tea Council of the U. S. A., Inc., reports that tea sales hit an all-time high in January, up 22 per cent over the like month in 1953.

That consumers, by and large, have the money to buy is shown by all the figures on personal income totals, savings and the like. Personal income is still running at an annual rate of 282½ billion dollars a year.

People will still buy—if they think it's a bargain—but won't necessarily consider the price right just because the cost of producing it is high.

Business Booms

WATFORD, Ont. (U.P.)—Blacksmith Ernest Charlton says the automobile hasn't hurt his business one bit. And he's been pounding the anvil for 45 years.

There is always a pile of farm implements outside the shop waiting to be repaired. In the summer, show horses and racers keep the stocky, 63-year-old village smith busy.

OLD SMOKY—Holding one of grandpa's favorite meerschaum pipes is pretty Gus Spelvin. Both Gus and the pipe were featured attractions at the National Antiques Show in New York City.

Beef Again Leads 'Best Buy' Parade

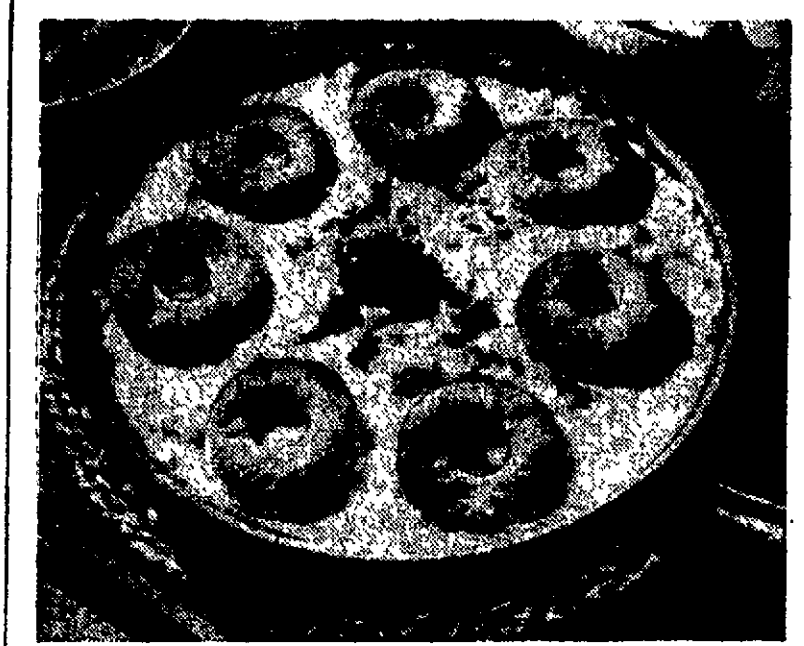

By The Associated Press
Beef will lead the bargain parade in the meat departments of the nation's food stores again this weekend.
Prominently mentioned as specials by stores over the country are prime ribs, pot roast, chuck roast and round steak. Stores featuring prime ribs will cut prices by 2 to 10 cents a pound. Pot roast will be around four cents cheaper in some outlets.

There'll be little change in lamb prices, but pork again shows upward tendencies. Increases of 2 to 10 cents a pound will be posted for pork chops in a number of stores.
In the wholesale markets, beef moved a little lower while lamb and veal rose. Pork prices were erratic. Meat men say lamb is likely to rise until May because fewer lambs are being fattened now than a year ago.
Chicken prices may be a little higher in your store this weekend. Price boosts of two to six cents a pound are planned in some markets. Eggs will be a penny or two a dozen cheaper in some sections and one to four cents higher in others.

Baked Cream Cod Makes Delicious Meal During Lent

BAKED CREAM COD served Gloucester, Mass., style, is a real sea-food treat.

By GAYNOR MADDON
Fish and hospitality—that's what we enjoyed in the old fishing town of Gloucester, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Bundy entertained us in their large, easy-going home overlooking the Reef of Notman's Woe—that's the reef Longfellow wrote about in "The Wreck of the Hesperus."
Fritz Bundy, who is president of National Fisheries Institute, has been in the fishing industry for years. He and his gracious wife have developed the art of fish cookery in their home and gave us a few lessons—delicious lessons. Here are two of their recipes using cod and ocean perch, two of Gloucester's chief products.
Baked Creamed Cod (Makes 4 servings)
One 1 1/2-ounce can salt codfish, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 1/2 cups milk, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, few drops lemon juice.
Open can salt codfish and drain. Melt butter, stir in flour and add milk. Cook while stirring until smooth and thickened. Butter a baking dish and fill with alternate layers of codfish and white sauce. Season with pepper, chopped parsley and a few drops of lemon juice. Top with baking powder biscuits cut with doughnut cutter. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) until biscuits are done, 12 to 15 minutes.
Broiled Perch Fillets With Crumb Toppings (Makes 4 servings)
Thaw and separate one pound ocean perch fillets. Place on lightly greased baking sheet, skin side down. Season with salt and pepper, and sprinkle with fine bread crumbs. Broil about 4 to 5 inches from heat, until crumbs are browned and fish is easily separated with a fork. Serve with lemon wedges.
Giant Apples Are Grown
STOCKHOLM (AP)—Ever see an apple weighing two pounds? In a few years it may be a familiar sight in the Swedish fruit markets. After 17 years of experimenting, Swedish Scientist Emil Johansson has succeeded in doubling the chromosomes of diploid apples and produced a tetraploid one—a giant, high quality apple weighing nearly two pounds.
He has been able for some time to grow big apples, but the quality was poor. Now he has solved the problem of combining size and quality.

Fish Mousse Is Year-Round Favorite With Texas Men

cream to boiling point and do not boil. Add butter or margarine. Remove from heat and stir in bread crumbs, salt and minced onion. Stir in fish and blend well. Let mixture cool to lukewarm. Beat egg whites until very stiff and fold into fish mixture. Pour into greased 8-inch ring mold. Place mold in a pan of hot water and bake at 350 degrees F. (moderate oven) 30 minutes. Turn mold out onto platter. Garnish top with pimiento strips. Fill center with peas or other vegetable.

Another family favorite is shrimp. Combining it with bread and tomatoes in this shrimp scallop not only stretches 1 1/2 pounds of shrimp to feed a family of five, but also provides a one-dish meal which includes everything a main course should provide: sea food, vegetables and bread.

Shrimp Scallop
(Makes 4 servings)

One and one half pound shrimp, fresh or frozen; 6 slices bread, 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 No. 2 can stewed tomatoes.

Clean and cook shrimp. Stacking 3 slices of bread at a time, cut off crusts and cub bread to make 8 pieces out of each slice. Melt butter or margarine in a frying pan. Add bread cubes and toss in butter until well coated. Turn heat down and continue cooking, stirring frequently until bread is brown and crisp. Put a layer of bread cubes in the bottom of a 1 1/2-quart baking dish. Add stewed tomatoes and shrimp. Top with remaining bread cubes. Bake at 400 degrees F. (hot oven) until tomatoes are bubbly and hot, about 20 minutes.

By GAYNOR MADDOX

There is more to Texas eating than barbecues and chili. We asked a mother of three boys in Dallas about this, Mrs. Douglas Ridley. She told us her fish mousse is a year-round favorite with her men-folks, both in winter and during the hot Texas summer. So let's see how it tastes.

Fish Mousse

(Makes 6 to 8 servings)

One package of frozen fish filets, 2 cups light cream, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 cups soft bread crumbs, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 medium onion, minced, 4 eggs whites, pimiento.

Put raw fish filets through food chopper, using fine blade. Heat

Ever Try French Shrimp Dish With Missouri Accent?

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Ever eat a French shrimp dish with a Missouri accent? Now's your chance.
One of the most attractive eating places in the midwest is Putsch's fashionable Country Club Plaza restaurant in Kansas City's jud and Virginia Putsch own and operate the restaurant, which has been in the Putsch family for years. It features French cooking in the New Orleans manner. Two of their most popular dishes are Shrimp De Jonghe and Shrimp Curry, both made to order in individual portions, supervised by Ramon, the executive chef, who received his early training in France.

Shrimp De Jonghe
(Makes 6 servings)
Two pounds fresh or frozen shrimp, 2 cups green onions, finely chopped, 2 cloves garlic, 1 cup butter, 3 cups bread crumbs, finely chopped, salt and pepper to taste, dash of Worcestershire sauce.
Clean and devein shrimp. Sauté onion and garlic in melted butter for 6 minutes, or until brown. Add shrimp and cook 2 minutes. Add bread crumbs and cook 8 minutes. Crumbs are brown. Remove garlic. Add salt, pepper and Worcestershire sauce. Serve on a bed of rice.

Shrimp Curry
(Makes 6 servings)
Two pounds fresh or frozen shrimp, cooked, 3 tablespoons butter, 1 onion, finely chopped, 2 green apples, peeled and grated, 1/2 teaspoons curry powder, 1 cup light cream (milk may be used), 2 cups chicken stock, 1 tablespoon cornstarch, 3 tablespoons cold water.

longer, stirring constantly until the Clean and cook shrimp. Melt butter in a saucepan and add onion and apple. Sauté 3 minutes. Add curry powder and cook 1 minute. Gradually add cream and stock. Mix cornstarch with cold water to a smooth paste and add to the sauce. Bring to boil, cook 5 to 6 minutes. Stir constantly. Add shrimp and serve on a bed of rice.

Drops Junior
NEW YORK (U)—The Democratic party in New York now has one less "junior."
Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., a potential candidate for governor next year, still holds to the title.
But Mayor Robert F. Wagner Jr. of New York has announced that he wants to be known simply as Mayor Robert F. Wagner. His father was the New Deal Senator for whom the Wagner Act was named.

Governor Vows
To Clean Up
Political Mess

SAN DIEGO, Tex. (U)—George Parr, long-time boss of a bloc-voting, five-county south Texas area, pondered his next move today in his bitter fight to maintain power.
Due in court March 15 on a pistol-carrying charge brought by a political foe, Parr Wednesday was denied an injunction request against two Texas Rangers he accuses of wanting to kill him.
His most recent court trouble followed vows by Gov. Allan Shivers and State Atty. Gen. John Ben Sheppard to "clean up the Duval County mess."
Sheppard and his aides, helped by the state auditor's staff, have been investigating financial affairs of Duval County and its independent school districts.
Served Time
Postal inspectors have been investigating affairs in the county and internal revenue agents have been looking into Parr's income tax returns. Once before he served a term in federal prison for income tax evasion.
Parr hired famed civil rights attorney Arthur Garfield Hays of New York to represent him in his fight against Ranger Capt. Alfred Allee and Ranger Joe Bridge.
But the three-judge federal panel said it had no jurisdiction in Parr's plea against Bridge and "gravely doubted" that jurisdiction was shown in charges against Capt. Allee. The plea against Bridge was dismissed and the injunction request against Allee was denied.
Not Convinced
The court said evidence presented by Parr and Hays did not convince it that Parr's life was in danger from Allee.
But the three judges said their opinion should not be taken to mean that they "condone or approve" of Bridge slapping Parr's nephew, Duval County Sheriff Archer Parr, on Jan. 18 nor of Allee slapping Dist. Atty. Raburn Norris Feb. 8.
"Disciplining of these defendants," the eight-page opinion said, "is not within our jurisdiction."
A hearing is set in Allee, in adjoining Jim Wells County, Saturday on a motion to dismiss an assault to murder indictment against the two rangers. The indictment grew out of the Jan. 18 courthouse brawl in which Bridge slapped Archer Parr. George Parr's ear was bloodied in the fracas.
Draws Gun
Allee, his gun drawn, stepped back from the melee as a woman reporter screamed, "Cap, don't! Cap, don't!" Parr said the woman's screams kept Allee from killing him.
Bridge said the argument arose after Archer Parr "insulted me and the Ranger force." Archer had brought George Parr to Allee for a hearing on the gun-carrying complaint brought by Manuel Marroquin, a leader of the Freedom party, organized to oppose Parr's regime.
Parr and an associate, Juan Barrera, face trial March 15 on the pistol-carrying indictment.
Gov. Shivers sent a company of Rangers under Capt. Allee to Duval County in 1932 after the assassination of Jacob S. Floyd Jr. Floyd was killed in an ambush which his father, a bitter political foe of Parr, said was meant for him.
The elder Floyd, an Allee attorney, was one of the accused Rangers' attorneys last week during the three-day injunction hearing in Houston.
Sumatra, with an area of 182,860 square miles has a population of about 11 million people.
